

VIRGINIA OILMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Carroll Willingham Virginia Oilman of the Year Award is the Association's highest honor. Since it was established in 1980, each year it has recognized an individual for extraordinary contributions to the petroleum industry in the state of Virginia. The award is presented on Sunday evening of the Association's Annual Meeting each year.

The Award is named after the late Carroll Willingham, a former Marathon Petroleum employee and longtime supporter of the association. You are invited to nominate a candidate for this prestigious award. Nomination criteria include:

- Significant contributions to the petroleum industry in Virginia
- Service to local, state or national petroleum related organizations
- Service to his or her community and employees
- Virginia residency
