VA Senate Resolution Recognizes VPCMA's 75th Anniversary

Senators Jill Holtzman Vogel of Fauquier and Dick Saslaw of Fairfax were co-patrons of Senate Joint Resolution 92 which has passed the state Senate unanimously. The resolution recognizes the founding of the association in 1948, some of VPCMA's many accomplishments, and recounts other significant milestones over the past quarter century. We anticipate that it will be formally presented to the membership at the annual meeting in Virginia Beach, September 24-26. It will be displayed prominently at the association office in Richmond.
