Virginia Tax Rebates Upcoming- Check Your Status Here

Virginia is scheduled to send more than 3.2 million tax rebates thru direct deposit and hard checks by October 10. Individuals are scheduled to receive $250 and joint filers $500. The department of taxation has made available the following website where you can check the status of your rebate: Please note that those with outstanding liabilities to the Commonwealth will see their checks reduced by that amount.

VPCMA Comments on Virginia State Energy Policy

Every four years the state makes revisions to its energy plan. In 2018, one party rule led us to adopting standards like the California mandatory electric vehicle requirement and electrification of home heating and cooling systems. Fortunately, the Youngkin administration has said that they are looking for an "all of the above" energy plan that will encourage people to move to Virginia, reversing the population loss over the previous four years.
