
Virginia Petroleum Convenience and Grocery Association

update

Michael J. O'Connor, President

March 2, 2018

www.vpcga.com

Governor Declares State of Emergency in Response to Severe Weather

Governor Ralph Northam declared a state of emergency Friday afternoon to address the effects of the severe weather impacting communities across the Commonwealth. The order is designed to help Virginia mitigate any damage caused by high winds and to streamline the process that the Commonwealth uses to provide assistance to communities impacted.

Read the full text of Executive Order with waivers here and keep a copy in all trucks.