Last Chance to Register for 70th Anniversary Celebration Key Largo

We are 5 days away from the expiration of our room block in Key Largo at the Ocean Reef Club. We have planned an excellent program at one of the nation's leading oceanfront resorts. PMAA President Rob Underwood and Steve Uphoff, former owner of Uppys convenience store chain will headline our seminar on Saturday, and there will be plenty of time to enjoy all the resort has to offer.

The reservation deadline is March 30th. Our block of individual rooms at the $369 oceanfront rate has dwindled to just three rooms remaining , however there are two-bedroom condos available outside of our block at the rate of $699/night.
