

March 27, 2020

www.vpcma.com

EPA Extends RVP Deadline until May 20th

As previously reported, we have joined several states requesting that the May 1 RVP deadline be extended. The extreme demand destruction for gasoline has meant that there is more conventional fuel in the system than can possibly be sold before the current deadline. Attached is information from EPA extending the deadline for three weeks. The release may be found here.

VA Department of Emergency Management Information

The Virginia Department of Emergency Management has developed a web page containing information on current state waivers, memorandum, and guidance documents applicable to business coping with the impact of COVID-19. Members should bookmark this page for future reference.

<https://www.vaemergency.gov/coronavirus>

PMAA Regulatory Alert: EPA Issues Enforcement Discretion Policy for Routine Compliance Requirements

From PMAA

The U.S. EPA also issued general enforcement discretion policy this week designed to address difficulties regulated parties may have maintaining certain routine compliance requirements due to the COVID-19 outbreak. Specifically, the U.S. EPA will not seek civil penalties for the following: Routine Monitoring and Reporting; Integrity Testing; Sampling; Lab analysis, Training and Certification. Click here to view the full report from PMAA Regulatory Counsel Mark Morgan.

© 2020 Virginia Petroleum & Convenience Marketers Association. Information in this publication may not be reproduced or otherwise disseminated by non-VPCMA members without prior consent.