No Change to Statewide or Regional Fuels Tax Rates

Under Virginia law, the statewide fuels tax rates are adjusted every six months if the average wholesale price of unleaded regular gasoline exceeds the floor price of $3.19 per gallon. Additionally, earlier this year the General Assembly imposed the floor on local taxes in Northern Virginia and Hampton Roads. Since the wholesale price did not rise above the $3.19 floor, state and local taxes will remain the same during the period January 1, 2019 thru June 30, 2019. The statewide tax for gasoline will remain at 16.2 cents for gasoline and 20.2 cents for diesel. This morning, DMV posted the revised 2019 tax rates to their website which may be found below.
